- 25X1 1. The northern section of the Meissen barracks was occupied by 200 to 300 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank and artillery insignia. About 25 percent of the windows were illuminated the evening of 22 May 1950. One officer and 30 EM were seen with light assault equipment.
2. In the southern section of the installation there were only about 40 soldiers wearing red-bordered black epaulets, some with tank insignia. Only eight windows of the guard-house were lighted the evening of 22 May 1950. *
- 25X1 * Comment. The report implies that elements of the 95th Tank Regt and the unidentified motorcycle battalion of the 9th Tank Div, which are assumed to be stationed in Meissen, were at the post on 22 May 1950. It can therefore be assumed that portions of these units, went to the Koenigsbrueck troop training grounds, as did the components of the 9th Tank Div in Riesa and Oschatz.
